

Lighting Columns

All tree pruning should be carried out in a selective manner with a view to retaining its amenity value. It is the land owner's responsibility to prune any branch that encroaches any street lamp column. The diagrams below indicate the clearance required around all columns.

Roads and Footways

The land owner should prune any branch, hedge or vegetation that encroaches the footway below the height of 2.3m and below 5.4m over the highway.

